My dear Ana!

I am glad that you like the chocolates! I am sure by now you have more energy to read books and make clothes as a seamstress! You've made a good decision by giving you brother some of the chocolates. I am sure he will help you out in many other ways! Do you remember I share cloth, food, and almost everything with my brother?!! But of course that's because we are brothers and of the same age.

This week we went to eat Hot Pot in a restaurant. I don't know if you know what Hot Pot is. Basically we order a lot of raw food such as raw lamb, raw beef, raw fish, raw squids, mushrooms, vegetables. Then we pick the ones we like and put them in a pot with boiling water in the middle of the table. After a few minutes, the food will be cooked and then we take it out of the boiling water and dip it into different sauces. The last step, send it into our mouths!! YUMMY!! Ana, if you haven't tried it, I will show you! By the way, have you tried Sushi before?

Sorry to hear your mum caught a cold. I am sure your dad will take good care of her! And I wish her to be well soon. I was crazy about cartoons when I was a child. I have quite a few favorite cartoons which you may not have heard of, they are boy's cartoons. (Dragonball Z, Slam Dunk, Transformers) I had a whole cartoon comic collection of them when I was a child! Right now I am not as crazy as before but I still sing their theme songs in karaoke. Have you watched Finding Nemo? That was an amazing cartoon with fascinating graphics, a lovely theme and funny characters. Lion King was a little bit sad but inspiring. You like Madagascar?? OK, I will watch it this weekend! What were your favorite childhood cartoons?

You know what, the weather is good in Toronto, too! It is around 5 to 11C here. But it's much warmer than last year. It was snowing this time last year in Toronto, too. I think we have very very similar weather. But when I talked to my brother on the phone last week, he made me so jealous. It is now 28C in Doha, Qatar! It's almost summer there right now! That means they have summer all year round!

Wow, It must be fun jumping in the pile of tree leaves. For me, I haven't seen a pile of tree leaves in my whole life time. I didn't even know you can smell something from the tree leaves. I thought only flowers have good smell. Maybe you can show me when I am there. ;-)

If you were the seamstress, I will be the merchant in your area. I will ship your clothes to Canada and sell them in the shopping mall near my workplace. The brand name of your clothes will be AnaGo and TeddyCal. ;-)

Let me know how your essay goes. I will watch Madagascar this weekend!

I've made a BIG pile of hugs and kisses on this letter. You can jump on it now. I hope you will have a great time here! ;D
