My dear Ana,

How are you this week? Sorry for not replying you sooner. I must have kept you worried. I was busy packing and seeing off my friends before I left. For this I sincerely ask for your forgiveness. My flight started on Sunday 5:30 pm Toronto local time and I arrived in Doha at 12:30 a.m. on Monday Qatar local time. It was a smooth flight overall. I visited downtown Frankford when I was waiting for my transfer flight in Germany.

I started my work the next day after I arrived in Qatar. Since then I've been busy working with my brother. Before I write you this letter, I planned to take some good photos of Qatar and then write to you about it. Today is Qatar's National day and I had a chance to visit some beautiful places.

First we went to the Port of Doha. I am sure my picture has shown you a lot of things I don't need to explain—it's summer out there! ;-) Coming from Toronto, I cannot complain about the weather here at this time. The temperature is about 20C. I remember in one of your past letter, you said you want the summer to be longer. Well, I am sure I can help you find it here! ;-)

The 2nd picture was taken outside a beautiful hotel. The bench I sat on was facing the ocean. And it was sunset time. The camera wasn't doing a good job capturing the scene. But I am sure you will like it if you were here. ;-) do you see the coconut tree behind me? Too bad there were no coconuts on the trees yet. ;(

The 3rd picture was taken in a shopping mall called Villagio. The size of this mall is so big that they even have an internal canal going through the mall. Visitors can take the boats in the canal and go to different destinations in the mall. I am sure it will take you another day to visit the shops in this mall. ;-)

The last picture with me and my brother was taken in the Museum of Islamic History. It is a very nice museum. I will show you more pictures when I come to you. The reason why I chose this particular one is that the window was facing downtown Doha across the water. There are a lot of skyscrapers being built in Doha. Our goal is to supply as much construction materials to the developers as possible. As you said in the last letter and as I strongly believe, "everything goes for better.", I hope our goal will be achieved in the near future. ;-)

Ana, although I've laid down a lot of kisses on the ground, I still don't want you to fall on the ground. It's painful! ;-) so please take extra care of yourself during this slippery weather.

I can also feel that you are much closer to me right now. As you know, I just started working in this completely new environment. There are still a lot of new things I need to learn and adjust. I will try to come to you as soon as possible before January 17th.

Please take good care of yourself for now and enjoy your busy studies. :-)

Yours truly

Calvin

P.S. your kisses were all over my plane! This time since our distance is much closer, I will just blow my kisses into the wind and let the wind carry my kisses to you. :-)
