My dear Ana!

How are you? I am so happy to tell you that I have booked my flight to Chernigov! ;-) I will be with you on Sunday, January 18th. The flight on Sunday will be about 10 hours long. The reason I chose Sunday flight is that the Saturday flight will be 16 hours!

So far I am enjoying my new job! I am driving everyday to different places and talk to new people. I enjoy the weather here even more! I haven't seen any drop of rain so far. Or even a cloud in the sky! ;-) But I've heard that the temperature here will be 40C in the summer time, so I am planning to spend my summer back in Toronto.

Most of the women here are wrapped in black cloth from head to toe; only revealing their eyes. Most men here are in white clothes with a small light red hat. Their weekend is Fridays and Saturdays instead of Saturday s and Sundays. This always makes me confused because I've always had weekend on Saturday and Sundays.

Ana, I am writing to you today instead of this weekend because I want to wish you a Merry Merry Merry Christmas! I so wish I can spend this Christmas with you my dear Ana. I am sure this will come true next year! ;-)

Ok, I need to go to sleep now. I will write you another letter this weekend! Take good care of yourself and enjoy your study. But don't be stressed out by exams! Go out for a coffee with some friends if you feel you are nervous! >_@

This time I hide my kisses in my Christmas greetings below:

Merry Merry Merry KrlStmaS my dear Ana!

Your,

Calvin
