My dear Ana!

Is your mouth watering after seeing the mooncake photo I sent you? I bet you can't wait to try mooncakes now! ;) Don't worry I still have plenty of them in my fridge.

Ouch! I am sorry to hear you need to wake up so early… >_< When I was in high school, I used to wake up at 6:30 in the morning to attend class at 7:30. But I never felt sleepy back then. Now if you ask me to wake up before 7 am, I'll be walking like a zombie the whole day! Maybe I am getting old…or maybe I am getting lazier…

The weather doesn't sound fun at your place right now. But it'll change soon! Toronto was rainy for the whole week of the mid-autumn festival. But right from the night of the festival the weather changed. Then it was all sunny for the past week! Now Toronto is around 9C – 16C. But the weather forecast says it's going to rain this week. So the weather changes like our mood. Although we cannot control the change of the weather, we can control the change of our mood! So "Hakuna Matata!"---don't worry be happy!! ;-)))

My best friend's dog died last Monday. ;(We drove the dog to a river bank and buried him with his toys and food. My friend was so sad. He cried for hours. We used to go to his apartment to sing karaoke on weekends but this week we decided to keep his place quiet. It's sad to see his dog died. I played with his dog every time I go to his place. Anyways, what needs to be done have been done. All I can do is to cheer him up and hope he will be well soon.

How far is the library from your house? Is it safe to stay late in the library? If you need to study in the library, I hope you can study with some friends and go home together to keep safe. :)

Yes, please let me know your school and holiday schedule once you know it and I will plan accordingly.

Hugs and Kisses,

P.s. I am waiting for your family photos! :)

A truckload of XOs coming!
