My dear Ana,

Thank you very much for your warm wishes! I wish you had a great time and great dinner with your family. May all the joys and happiness be around you for all the years to come!

In fact, our Canadian Thanksgiving Day is the 2nd Monday of October, right about one month after the Mid-Autumn Festival. So we already had our BIG turkeys back then. Do you know a British TV show called Mr. Bean? One of the episodes was about Thanksgiving Day and Mr. Bean was trying to cook a turkey. The turkey ended up covering his head. That episode made me laugh so hard! If you haven't watched it, I highly recommend you to watch it! You should be able to get it from the DVD rental store because it's a popular TV show in the world.

Ana, you haven't answered my question about the bowling pins yet! My question is how many pins do you think are still standing on the ground when the picture was taken? Again, if you can guess it right, there will be surprises! Let me give you some tips: just look at the way I walk and the way I look at the camera, do you feel the confidence from the man in the picture? :D Ana, do you like bowling? I like bowling but I don't play it often. What's your favorite sport?

9 out of 10 for your essay? You really put a lot of effort into it! Congratulations! Way to go! I am sure you will be a successful seamstress since you are willing to put efforts into the things you do.

You are going back to Baturin soon in December, right? Is it going to be next week? Are you going to see the President in person the first time? I am so excited for you! Bring a camera with you if you can because I haven't seen the Prime Minister of my country in person EVER in my life!

This weekend I don't have any plans yet. It's snowing outside so I'd rather stay home. Maybe I will watch some movies and continue with my studies.

Take care and have a nice weekend my dear!

This time my kisses will be in the next cheese cake you eat. The sweetness you can taste is ingredient of my kisses, hope you'll enjoy it....

Calvin
